Questions about 401(k)

Q. After my contract employment ends, will I have to close my 401(k) account?

A. MATRIX does not require participants to close out their accounts upon ending contract employment. You may therefore either (1) leave your 401(k)-account active with T. Rowe Price, or (2) close your account and transfer your monies to either an IRA, another qualified 401(k) plan or cash out. Terminated employees who choose to leave their balance in the Plan will be charged a $20 quarterly fee.

Q. Can I borrow against my 401(k)?

A. If your 401(k) balance is greater than $2,000, you can take up to 50% of your account balance for purposes of a loan (minimum loan amount is $1,000). There is a $50 loan origination fee and the loan is paid back through payroll deductions (the interest charged is prime plus 2%). Participants are also charged a $25 annual loan fee. Loan requests are made through T. Rowe Price Annuity and generally take about 2-3 weeks to process all the necessary paperwork.

Q. Do you have a 401(k) Plan?

A. Our 401(k) Plan is available to all employees. The Plan is administered by T. Rowe Price.

Q. How do I enroll?

A. Employees can enroll on the T. Rowe Price website after they receive their first paycheck.

Q. How often can I change my payroll deductions for 401(k)?

A. You can change payroll deductions amount(s) for the 401(k) at any time through the T. Rowe Price website.

Q. Does MATRIX offer matching?

Q. When is my insurance effective?

A. Insurance is effective the 1st day of the month that coincides with or follows 30 consecutive days of employment (e.g. start date is 7/15, eligibility date is 9/1). You have up to 30 days after your hire date to enroll in the group health insurance.

Q. When must I submit my insurance elections?

A. For your benefits to start on time, you must submit your insurance elections within 30 days of your hire date. Elections are made in Workday.

Q. What group insurance benefits do you offer?

A. MATRIX offers medical, dental, vision, basic life, disability, and optional life insurance. When you login to Workday, you can see a list of the benefits offered in the W2 Orientation Guide worklet.

Q. Who is eligible for insurance benefits?

A. All regular full-time employees who consistently work a minimum of 30 hours per week are eligible to enroll in the insurance benefits.

Q. What is the time frame in which I must elect COBRA?

A. You have up to 60 days from the date you receive your COBRA election form, via certified return-receipt, to complete the paperwork and return it to the COBRA administrator. You then have up to 45 days from the date you sign and return your election form to submit your first payment, which will be applied retroactively to the date COBRA coverage began.

Q. When are COBRA payments due?

Q. If I do not want to elect insurance when I am first eligible, can I elect insurance later?

1. Change in status (marriage, divorce, birth, adoption, change in work status, spouse loses coverage, etc.)
2. Open enrollment (held throughout the month of May of each year for a June 1 effective coverage)

If you experience a change in status, you must notify the Benefits Department at 800.382.5533 within 31 days of the event.

Questions about Contracting

Q. What about benefits?

A. If you are seeking permanent placement, benefits packages will vary. This is an area we will help you explore with each client company to determine compatibility with your needs. When you become a MATRIX consultant, you are eligible for the entire MATRIX benefits package including Medical, Dental, Vision, Life, and Disability coverage. This coverage is effective the first of the month following 30 days of employment.

Q. What training is offered to consultants?

A. MATRIX offers a variety of training and certification opportunities.

- Our free e-Learning courses are available for you to take “live” through our training partner, TrainUp. There are currently more than 4,000 different courses available on a wide range of technical and business topics. For more details on training options, please visit our training page on this website.

If you would like to see a workshop offered on a subject or would like to see an online course offered, please let your MATRIX Account Executive know. Any suggestions to improve our services are always appreciated!

Q. Who will be the legal employer when I am on assignment?

A. If you choose to come on board with MATRIX as a W-2 consultant, MATRIX would be your legal employer.

Q. How long is the average contract length for MATRIX consultants?

A. Eight months is the average.

Q. How do you find my next assignment if my current contract is coming to an end?

A. Our goal is to keep you on staff and place you again and again! Your resume and skills will be proactively marketed by our team of Recruiters and Account Executives (the MATRIX contact points for our clients). They know your exact end date, key skills and desired rate, and they use these to help find you an open position.

Q. How do you determine your bill rates for consultants?

A. We work with our clients to determine the fair market bill rate, taking into consideration several market factors, such as available skills in the market and what is being offered for similar experience levels. MATRIX then develops a fair margin on top of this rate which covers all General and Administrative overhead costs (such as FICA, FUTA, and SUTA), Workers' Compensation, Medicare and an insurance contribution incurred by MATRIX. Additionally, we incur expenses associated with running our operation that are included in that rate. We then quote this rate to the client manager when we present you as a candidate.

Q. What happens when my current contract ends?

A. Four weeks before your contract ends, we will contact both you and your client manager to see if your contract is going to be extended. If there is no extension, we will begin to actively market you for new positions. This gives us plenty of time to find you a new opportunity. You are also open to market your resume to other resources in order to keep your options open.

Q. Can I get a contract based on the training I do with the e-Learning courses?

A. Our clients typically look for "real world" experience in addition to training. e-Learning, while an excellent method to learn new skills and hone current ones, may not be enough to land you a new contract in a skill in which you trained.

Q. What factors determine hourly pay rate?

A. There is no simple formula for establishing pay rates, but several factors are usually important: the skills required for the project, the duration of the assignment, the number of available candidates with the required skills, the difficulty of the assignment, and any past employment with the client.

Q. What is contract consulting ("contracting")?

A. Contract consultants are hired by companies, on an hourly basis, to use their skills on a specific project for a set period. After an assignment is completed, the consultant is released to begin another project. Contracting is a form of employment that has become very popular for IT professionals.

Questions about MATRIX

Q. Do your clients provide sponsorship for an H-1 Visa?

A. It varies. Some of our client companies allow MATRIX to sponsor, but not all. Please check with your MATRIX Associate.

Q. Do you place candidates anywhere in the country?

A. Yes, we have placed candidates from Seattle to Boston, and everywhere in between. With offices across the country, MATRIX has the capacity to serve our clients staffing needs on a nationwide basis.

Q. Can I change my Account Executive?

A. The Account Executive is responsible for all MATRIX contract activity with a specific client company. If you have an issue with your Account Executive, please contact your local MATRIX Director in confidence to discuss the situation.

Q. Why should I use MATRIX?

A. Many firms choose not to advertise their open positions because of the time and expense involved with performing the search. Instead, they engage MATRIX to find qualified candidates for them. You get access to these positions. You leverage the deep relationships we have built with hiring managers over three decades.

Further, we provide information you cannot obtain from an Internet Career site. You can get a detailed perspective on company culture, the working environment, and the position itself prior to going on an interview. The career information on our website can reduce the time you spend on interviews by ensuring you are presented with opportunities that fit your needs.

Finally, you will have a single point of contact at MATRIX (your MATRIX Associate) who will get to know you as an individual. Your job search becomes a team effort — not an individual one.

Q. Is your company publicly owned?

A. No. MATRIX is a privately-held firm, founded in 1983.

Q. Are you on retainer to any firm?

A. No. We work on a contingency basis, which means we represent several companies, not just one.

Q. Do you charge a fee?

A. No. Our fees are fully paid by our client companies.

Q. Do you place candidates moving to other cities?

A. Yes. A significant percentage of our candidates are relocating to other areas. We can work with you to develop a plan to conduct an out-of-town search with a minimum amount of inconvenience and wasted time.

Q. Can I change my Recruiter?

A. If you feel that you would like to be reassigned, you may contact your local MATRIX Recruiting Manager or Director in confidence to discuss the situation.

Q. How long will it take me to find a job?

A. It varies. If you have solid experience with a hard-to-find skill set, you could be presented with an offer in a matter of days. Most candidates can expect their job search to last from two to six weeks on average, but it could last longer. Also, higher-level, permanent positions often have longer hiring cycles of 12 weeks or more.

Each client has a different timetable, depending on their sense of urgency. Some clients need to replace an employee who has left or who is leaving and are willing to move very quickly to do this. Other clients may be hiring for a project that does not start for some time; they may take more time interviewing and screening potential candidates.

Q. How often will I hear from you?

A. Once you begin the search process, you can expect to hear from your MATRIX Associate as opportunities become available. We also encourage you to review our website periodically and to let us know if you see a position of interest.

Q. How will we stay in touch?

A. We have found that most people prefer telephone correspondence. We realize that telephone conversations may be difficult for you at times, so each MATRIX Associate can also correspond with you via e-mail or text.

Q. Is our relationship exclusive?

A. No. You are free to work with any firm you desire at any time.

Q. What kind of jobs do you have?

A. MATRIX focuses primarily on the IT profession, and we have hundreds of technical and functional positions at all levels. These positions can include PC Support, Network Administration, Network Architecture, Web/Internet related positions, Programmer Analyst, Software Engineer, Systems Analyst, Business Analyst, UNIX Systems Administrator, Database Administrator, Data Architect, Project Leader, Project Manager, IT Manager, Director, VP of Technology, and vendor-related positions.

Questions about Pay and Compensation

Q. What are people with my background making?

A. Good question. As you might imagine, there is no simple answer to this question. Market value is largely determined by area of the country, years of experience, depth of experience, educational history, and often varies by company and industry. We generate our own IT Salary Survey for the cities where we have a local office: Atlanta, Birmingham, Charlotte, Chicago, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, Jacksonville, Minneapolis, Phoenix, Raleigh, and San Francisco. This survey can provide you with a good understanding of the range of salaries in the marketplace.

Q. How will an offer be made?

A. This varies with each client company. Typically, an offer will be presented to you verbally by your MATRIX Associate. Other times, the employer will desire to present the offer directly to you. For permanent positions, once you accept the verbal offer, a written offer letter is generally sent to you via mail.

Q. I have been on a contract for “x” months, at what point can I expect a raise?

A. This varies from client to client. It is best to contact your MATRIX Account Executive to find out how your client typically handles this issue.

Please be sure to mention this experience to your MATRIX Associate.

A. It depends on your background, education, and flexibility. If you have a Computer Science, MIS, EE, or similar technical degree and relevant industry experience, we may be able to help you.
